Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Sunday 18 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Brightening up on Monday, warm sunshine by afternoon.

This Evening and Tonight:
Chance of some evening brightness in the east. Otherwise a rather cloudy night with a little light rain in places, but often dry. Perhaps turning clearer in the west later. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Monday:
Overnight low cloud burning off in the morning to leave a dry, bright and very warm afternoon. Low cloud and drizzle likely to linger across the Western Isles. Maximum temperature 25 deg C (77 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
A good deal of fine dry and sunny weather, and becoming hot. More cloud for the Western Isles and far northwest on Tuesday before here too turning sunny.
